UPCOMING INTERNATIONAL ELECTIONS

The International Office is currently preparing for the upcoming elections. You should have received a copy of the June 2006 publication of The Dispatcher in the mail. This publication contains information regarding the upcoming elections and can be found on page 18, where you find the General Notice of ILWU Referendum Election. The Dispatcher also includes related announcements, statements prepared by the candidates and photos of each candidate.

Take time to read this issue of The Dispatcher – remember that your upcoming vote counts! Watch for your ballot in the mail.

JULY 4th & JULY 5th, 2006 HOLIDAYS

July 4, 2006 will be a paid holiday. Only registered persons who have 800 qualifying hours in the prior payroll year (2005) and meet the availability requirements for at least two of the five days Monday through Friday (exclusive of the holiday) during the payroll week in which the holiday falls will receive the paid holiday for July 4, 2006. This means you must work or be available for two days Monday, July 3rd, Wednesday, July 5th, Thursday, July 6th, and Friday, July 7, 2006.

Under the current contract one does not have to meet the availability requirements if you work 1300 hours or more in the prior payroll year (2005) to receive July 4, 2006 holiday pay.

July 5th, Bloody Thursday under the current contract is still a holiday, but not a paid holiday. All work performed on July 5th is at the overtime rate.

Persons taking a vacation during the holiday week must report the vacation to the Records Clerk in the Dispatch Hall on or before July 7, 2006.

Persons not receiving holiday pay because of illness, injury, jury duty, etc., must file a claim with the Records Clerk on or before August 25, 2006.

The July 4, 2006 holiday will be paid on the payroll check issued on July 21, 2006.
